WHERE TO GO

The friendly residents of Saskatchewan's Northwest extend a welcoming hand. Here's a land of variety and contrast. From the rolling parklands of the south to the virgin forests of the northern districts you'll find excitement, beauty and history.

THE BATTLEFORDS

Trading center and focal point of the area is The Battlefords.

NORTH BATTLEFORD

Is a young hustling city with a population of 11,000. It is the home of the North Battleford Branch of the Western Development Museum, Golden Gate Wild Animal and Bird Park, and The Battlefords Exhibition during the first week in August each year.

BATTLEFORD

One of Saskatchewan's oldest settlements — is famous as the home of Fort Battleford National Historic Park.

JACKFISH AND MURRAY LAKES

These two wonderful family resort lakes are just 20 miles north of The Battlefords. Meota is located on the west side of Jackfish Lake. Cochin is a growing resort between Jackfish and Murray Lakes. Just a little further west is The Battlefords Provincial Park and Aquadeo Beach.

ALONG HIGHWAY 55

North of Spiritwood is Chitek Lake. South of Spiritwood is Meeting Lake. North of Liveland is located Turtle Lake.

MEADOW LAKE DISTRICT

The thriving town of Meadow Lake is surrounded with lakes and rivers containing some of the best angling to be found anywhere in North America. A few miles North of the town is the new Meadow Lake Provincial Park which follows the Waterhen River from the Alberta Border to the end of Waterhen Lake. Lac Des Isles. Largest body of water in the park, is the home of a new resort. Other outstanding lakes in the area include: Canoe Lake, Keeley Lake, Green Lake, Dore Lake and Lac La Plonge.

A JEWEL — LOON LAKE

You'll fall in love with beautiful Loon Lake. It is one of the northwest's oldest and best resorts.

ST. WALBURG

This town sits astride No. 26 highway and has become well known as the home of Imhoff's Art Studio. Hundreds of his finest paintings remain in the place he loved - a true memorial to a great artist.

HUNTER'S PARADISE

If you're a hunter then you'll really be at home in the wonderful northwest. Everywhere upland game and migratory birds are plentiful. And in the forests of the north moose, deer and elk are increasing.
